

AN ELEGY FOR ALL HUMANITY: Brahms' Ein deutsches Requiem

Sunday, May 7, 2017

🕒 5:00 pm 📍 All Souls Church

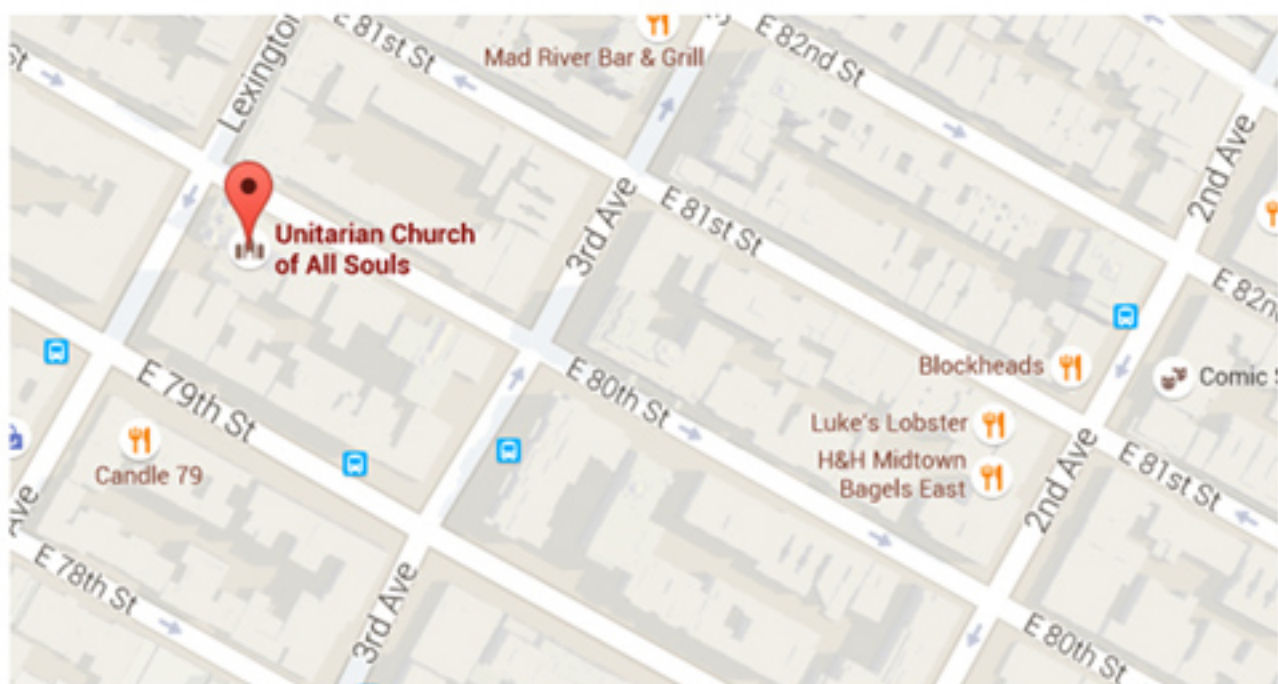

The final concert of the season presents Brahms' Ein deutsches Requiem, one of the most beloved works of all time written for choir and orchestra. In his Requiem, Brahms approaches death from a deeply human perspective, deliberately abandoning dogma in favor of inclusiveness. Musica Viva will present a rarely heard version for choir, soloists, and chamber ensemble of 11 instrumentalists, enhancing the intimate qualities of the work. Come celebrate the close of another successful season as we present a modern and fresh interpretation of this classic masterpiece.

With Musica Viva choir and Musica Viva soloists Devony Smith (soprano), Michael Maliakel (bass baritone) and Steven Moore (bass baritone).

PROGRAM

Ein deutsches Requiem, Op. 45 by Johannes Brahms (arranged for chamber ensemble by Joachim Linckelmann)

Approximate running time 80 minutes (no intermission).

All Souls Church
1157 Lexington Avenue,
New York, NY 10075.

ALL SOULS
A Unitarian Universalist Congregation